

NRPSI STATEMENT ON HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN

9 September 2022

"The death of such a dedicated public servant as HM The Queen is very sad news.

NRPSI owes its existence to the recommendation of a Royal Commission that a national register of qualified interpreters should be established with the aim of 'using only interpreters with proven competence and skills, who are governed by a nationally recognised code of conduct'.

Founded in 1994, NRPSI shares the Queen's outright commitment to public service."

Mike Orlov, Executive Director and Registrar, NRPSI
